NEWSLETTER

29 January 2016

Happy New Year!

Welcome to Corney & Lind Lawyers' first newsletter for 2016.

The year was off to a flying-start with our Directors, Andrew Lind and Alistair Macpherson invited to present to the Fiji Christian Legal Fellowship in early January. For an island nation that has a roll of approx. 350 legal practitioners, it was an honour and a privilege to be given a platform to speak to a large number of lawyers and legal staff sharing our insight on seeing Work as Ministry' and the 'Practicalities of running a Christian law firm'.

Fiji Christian Legal Fellowship

It was a timely reminder that to "whom much is given, much is required" in the context of equipping others to seek to administer Just Redemptive Outcomes beyond our borders.

New 9th Area of Practice: Criminal & Traffic Lawyers

We are pleased to announce our new 9th area of practice. Our Criminal Defence & Traffic Lawyers, led by Alistair Macpherson (Director), are here to help. Being charged for an offence can be a daunting ordeal. Often, it is difficult to know exactly what to do after it has happened.

Alistair Macpherson
Director

We offer our services for matters across the whole spectrum of Criminal Law, from small traffic matters to serious criminal charges. Importantly, our focus on Just, Redemptive Outcomes means we "journey" through your situation with you, taking the time to explain the process and ensuring you are never left overwhelmed. Read more about our service here.

Death and Taxes - The Executor's Responsibility to Lodge Tax Returns for a Deceased Estate

An Executor has the responsibility to administer all aspects of a Deceased Estate - including the responsibility to prepare and lodge tax returns (where required) on behalf of the Deceased and his/her Estate.

In this article, Andrew Lind (Director) and Michael Burgess (Lawyer) consider three types of tax returns that are needed to be considered by Executors. You can access the article here.

Domestic & Family Violence and Safety

Domestic violence comes in many forms and is not limited to physical violence. Until recently it was commonly accepted that domestic violence was limited instances of physical or sexual abuse and or threatening behaviour, however it is important to understand that some forms of domestic violence do not ever leave a physical mark. Domestic violence may also include emotional, psychological or financial/economic abuse and these too have serious and lasting effects on a person's life and wellbeing.

Fiona Manderson
Senior Associate

Fiona Manderson (Senior Associate) & Zoe Earl (Lawyer) discuss types of violent behaviour, what is a relevant relationship and obtaining a Protection Order. You can access the article here.
