

Congratulations!

Sincerity • Sacrifice • Success

Hello!

We have the pleasure of announcing that Jessica Lipsett has been promoted to Associate.

Jessica was admitted as a legal practitioner by the Supreme Court of Queensland in 2013. She holds a Bachelor of Laws and Graduate Diploma of Legal Practice from Bond University.

Jessica serves clients mainly in:

- Schools & education
- Family law; and
- Civil litigation.

Having worked across multiple roles in the education sector, Jessica combines her practical experience and legal knowledge to help individuals and institutions navigate their way through dispute matters.

Jessica's collaborative nature allows her to attend matters efficiently and clients conscientiously. This has proved valuable in high pressure situations that require quick advice. These attributes have seen clients commend her capability and valuable contribution in their matters.

An adventurous traveler, Jessica is a passionate supporter of her Church's mission partners overseas and frequently combines her overseas adventures with opportunities to support the humanitarian work of the local church abroad.

All the best Jessica.
