

There's a new Billboard in town.

And a competition to celebrate

Hello!

A new billboard has joined the Brisbane skyline and we are a tad excited.

As newcomers to the outdoor advertising space, we wanted a sign that would show our care in legal service, share our redemptive tagline to passersby and capture our essence. A little hard to do in less than 8 words, but I trust we got our message out.

To celebrate, we've put together a Fun Competition (check out our facebook, instagram and twitter accounts) should you see our Billboard around the inner city or Brisbane north.

Heilala Tabete
Business Development Manager

Hand picked articles

NFP & Charity - Current Freeze on QLD archives

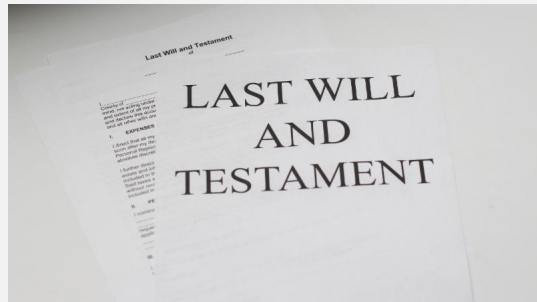

From 1 June 2018, there is a state wide ban on destruction of documents that might become relevant to an allegation of child sexual abuse.

Read the article

Family Law - What happens when children relocate?

Separated parenting is made difficult when one party relocates and maintaining a relationship with the child(ren) proves expensive for the other parent.

Read the article

Wills - Homemade & D.I.Y Will kits that end up costing you more.

We explain why a Western Australian Judge called homemade Wills "a curse".

Read the article

Upcoming Webinar

School Law Series:
Legal aspects of managing a PR Crisis - what you can or cannot do

Friday 3rd August @ 10am AEST

Register Now

just redemptive outcomes.

