Our Pick of Legal Articles August 2019

The New External Conduct Standards

The External Conduct Standards (ECSs) are now law having commenced on 23 July 2019. The purpose of the ECSs is to ensure that Charities meet appropriate standards of governance and behaviour when operating outside Australia, including adherence to international obligations.

Restraint of Trade Clauses: Drafting, Enforcing and Litigating

Employers must first be able to identify a particular business interest that is legitimately protectable. It is not enough to simply seek to stop former employees from becoming employees of a competing business (Stenhouse Australia v Phillips [1974] AC 391).

Revenge Porn

On 21 February 2019, the Criminal Code (Non-consensual Sharing of Intimate Images) Amendment Act 2019 ("the Act") became law. The Act amended the definition section of the Criminal Code ("the Code"), and added a new section 223. Together, the amendments criminalise the distribution – or the threat of distribution – of an intimate image or prohibited visual recording, without the subject's consent.
