

A New Year A New Beginning for Corney & Lind Lawyers

Curated Legal Articles January 2019

Staying up to date with the changes to the Family Law Courts

The Australian Government have announced their proposal to restructure the current Family Law Court System. Find out what this means for you.

Read It On Our Website

What you need to know about leaving a gift to a charity in your Will

It is important that independent legal advice is sought if you are wanting to leave a gift that "sticks" to a charity or other institution - find out why.

Read It On Our Website

10 Top Tips for Performance Managed Employees

A performance management process can be done in many ways. Whichever way, the process is stressful. We have put together 10 top tips on how employees can navigate the performance management process.

Read It On Our Website

Congratulations to our New Directors

It is with great pleasure we announce new leadership at Corney & Lind Lawyers

Corney & Lind Directors, Andrew Lind and Alistair Macpherson, are delighted to announce the appointment of 4 new Directors. They are:

Eduardo Cruz: Director • Litigation

Heilala Tabete: Director • Client Engagement & Business Development

James Tan: Director • Litigation

Nina Brewer: Director • Commercial & Not for profit

The new addition sees Andrew Lind become Chairman and Alistair Macpherson, Managing Director of the firm.

The new Director group express their gratitude to Christ, their hardworking staff, loyal clients and friends of the firm. The appointment of the new Directors is widely welcomed for the change it brings in diversity, gender and generation to the Corney & Lind leadership going forward in 2019.

