

We're almost half way through the year - can you believe it?

Curated Legal Articles June 2019

Not-for-profit & charities: External Conduct Standards for Charities

Australian charities applying any resources (including funds) overseas need to consider compliance with all External Conduct Standards (set to become law in July 2019). Andrew Lind & Nina Flewell-Smith unpack this in a recent paper.

Read It On Our Website

Family Law: Caveats & family property - how are they related?

If you ever find yourself in a situation of not being registered on the title of a property and worried that your 'other half' may sell the property without your consent during a separation, prevention may be your best protection.

Read It On Our Website

Lease v Licence

We often get asked 'What is the difference between a lease and a licence?' In this article we explain the difference and why it matters.

Read It On Our Website

Can your ex take your child overseas?

What do you do if your ex partner decides to take your child(ren) overseas? Are they allowed to do that? Find out what our family law team have to say about it.

Read It On Our Website

Finding God in every season

Our new lawyer, Ana Hatherley*, gave an inspiring interview with the Catholic Leader

EL Salvadorian-born Ana Hatherley remembers the excitement of boarding an airplane for the first time, bound for Australia. It was 1988, she was six years old, the eldest of three children. Young Ana and her family were fleeing their civil-war-torn country. Somehow it seemed like a great adventure. And it turned out to be the start of a faith-inspired life journey.

Ana celebrates her admission today as a legal practitioner to the Supreme Court of Queensland.*

Read full article here

