

October 2021

It's the final quarter of 2021 and there is much to be grateful for. A second year living in post-covid times has its challenges, but life and law is looking optimistic. Vaccination drives are in focus, State restrictions are easing and international travel is on the horizon. As the Christmas decorations make their annual appearance and the busyness of the season changes pace, we pause and reflect on the goodness of living in this part of the world.

How are you looking to finish 2021?

For us, we're counting our blessings & our hope is to finish strong.

Articles

Employee rights to refusing the covid vaccination.

Am I obligated, as an employee to receive a covid vaccination?

Unfortunately, the answer is not a simple yes or no.

Starting life again

On 22 November 2013, the Supreme Court of Queensland sentenced Mr Anderson to serve 8 years imprisonment for a 'serious violent offence' and disqualified him indefinitely from holding or obtaining a drivers licence.

On 12 October 2021, the Supreme Court of Queensland revoked the absolute disqualification, allowing Mr Anderson the privilege of being able to drive.
